

DELEGATE GUNN OUT OF POLITICS

Good Government Man Says
That Dissension Has Caused Defeat.

YOUNG GIRL'S SUDDEN END

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., June 14.—Mr. William H. Gunn, representative, announces his withdrawal from the Norfolk senatorial race, and makes his bow to Colonel W. W. Sale, the incumbent, who is standing for re-election. In withdrawing, Mr. Gunn says that yesterday's primary election in the city was a fair one, and that it resulted in a phenomenal victory for the anti-administration forces. He gives as the reason for this result "dissension in the good government ranks, and a reaction of public sentiment, which always follows in the wake of strife and division and party disorganization." He congratulates Mr. Trehy and the latter's friends on the result. He says: "I have fought faithfully for what I thought to be right, and for the public good, but my political aspirations are ended for the present."

GOOD GOVERNMENT LOSES.

The result of the first day's primary for the nomination of Democratic candidates for the city offices is practically a crushing defeat for the good government faction, with the exception of Billy Day, the leader of the good government faction. There were a number of surprises in the voting, but the tendency was to the defeat of any one allied with the present city administration.

James V. Trehy and Captain W. W. Day, the respective leaders of the two factions in local politics, are both re-elected, as clerk of the courts and commissioner of revenue, respectively.

Captain Herman will have to enter the second day's primary with Mr. Tunstall for nomination as treasurer, and City Sergeant John F. Lawler will have to contest with Mr. Hudgins for that office.

For the city collectorship the fight between W. L. Baker and E. J. Gorman will have to be fought over again, and Moses and R. B. Cornick will have to try tomorrow for the street inspectorship.

The city attorneyship will also have to be decided tomorrow.

Dr. A. A. Sutton wins the nomination for physician to the almshouse, and Mr. Broughton won readily for keeper of cemeteries.

In only one case, in which there were more than two candidates for office, was there a decisive vote, and that was Mr. Tarrall as keeper of the almshouse, who won over King and Duncan.

CANDIDATES TO-DAY.

The candidates to be voted for on the second day of the primary, to decide which of the highest is to receive the nomination of the party, are as follows:

City Attorney—Richard McIlwaine, James P. Duncan, City Collector—W. L. Baker, E. J. Gorman, City Treasurer—H. S. Herman, B. Gray Tunstall, City Sergeant—John F. Lawler, C. L. Hudgins, Street Inspector—Abe Moses.

Owing to a letter of withdrawal published to-day, Frank A. Lewis will likely not be on the ticket to-morrow for street inspector, but as Moses did not receive a majority of the votes cast, he will be opposed by the next candidate on the ticket for the office, R. B. Cornick, who desires to take Lewis's place and continue the race, from which he would be shut out if Lewis were to continue as a candidate.

John G. Carlisle Rebuked and Ousted By Bankers' Society

Former Governor of Massachusetts Also Deposed for Accepting Stock "for Services."

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

KITTERY, ME., June 14.—Former United States Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle was ousted as president of the United States Bankers' Corporation at the annual meeting of the corporation, held here yesterday, and former Governor J. Q. A. Brackett, of Massachusetts, and Walter I. Badger, a Boston lawyer, were dismissed as directors, reversing the action of a year ago.

Stock issued to John G. Carlisle, Thomas D. Taylor, V. S. Pettigill and J. Q. A. Brackett, under the head of "500 shares for services, etc.," were declared illegally issued, since no services could be rendered when no business was ever transacted, and a "committee of restitution" was appointed to use legal means to recover it.

In the heated meeting Messrs. Carlisle, Brackett and Badger were censured for accepting salaries and not returning subscriptions to stockholders, when the amount subscribed was not sufficient to begin business. Dissatisfied stockholders, led by L. Trevor Lewis, of New York, got control of the meeting after a fight of nearly five hours by establishing a precedent in not recognizing bonus stock proxies, held by W. H. Drury, representing Walter I. Badger and Thomas D. Taylor, which gave stock control to the Lewis combination. The Brackett combination threatened to take the matter into court, declaring the action on proxies illegal.

The corporation was incorporated in Kittery in 1902 with a capital stock of $5,000,000, nothing paid in, and with the object of buying up trust companies and opening branch banks throughout the country.

The Water Committee held a brief session last night, and after hearing discussion on the proposed new electric plant referred the entire matter to a subcommittee composed of Messrs. Mann (chairman), Mills and Masurier, and Superintendent Bolling, Engineer Trautman and City Attorney H. R. Pollard.

They are to confer and report at a later meeting of the full committee. The consensus of opinion seems to be that the committee will endorse the general scheme of the proposed new plant.

All the other business transacted at the meeting was routine in its nature.
